

LAC STE. ANNE COUNTY CONDUCTS DIVISION 6 BALLOT RECOUNT

Returning Officer updates unofficial Division 6 results to reflect October 20 recount.

Sangudo, Alberta, Thursday, October 21, 2021 – The County has today updated its unofficial 2021 municipal general election results following a recount of ballots cast for Division 6 candidates. The recount was performed on Wednesday, October 20, 2021 at 1:00 pm.

As a result of this recount, nine ballots were rejected due to their failure to meet all requirements of the Local Authorities Election Act. The recount has changed the unofficial outcome of Division 6 as follows:

COUNCILLOR, DIVISION 6	VOTES	%
Ross Bohnet	183	33.58
Michelle Claybrook	108	19.82
Harvey W. Hagman	182	33.39
Terry Nelson	72	13.21

Candidate Harvey W. Hagman conceded to Ross Bohnet following the recount, issuing the following statement:

“I wish to congratulate Ross Bohnet on his successful campaign. The voters have spoken, and I feel confident that Ross will do his best to represent Division 6 and advocate for all communities within our County. I wish Councillor Bohnet every success in tackling the challenges and seizing the opportunities before us.”

“My sincere thanks goes out to those who supported my recent campaign for a seat on Council. I will continue to do my part as an informed and involved member of our County, and encourage all residents of Division 6 to work with Ross in the same spirit of collaboration.”

Lac Ste. Anne County’s Returning Officer will declare the official election results at 12 noon on Friday, October 22. For further information about the 2021 municipal general election, please visit LSAC.ca/election2021.
